

community allotments located adjacent site entrance road pedestrian and cycle path linking B4349 to playing fields and south of village through public green space cluster of houses arranged around central green space apartment terraces arranged to overlook public space community orchards sweep through centre of the site natural play opportunities located all around the site shared surface lanes designed to naturally slow vehicular traffic hedges form boundary to all public edges of gardens swale provides natural separation between public and private footpaths provide pedestrian link between shared surfaces water attenuation integrated fully within design of the site

